DEPARTMENT MANUAL
VOLUME IV
Revised by Special Order No. 20 , 2023

203.25 REPORTING INCIDENTS MOTIVATED BY HATRED OR PREJUDICE. It is the policy of the Department to safeguard the rights of all individuals irrespective of their race or ethnicity, nationality, immigration status, religion, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity or gender expression, disability (whether temporary, permanent, congenital and no matter how it is acquired), and/or association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics. Any acts or threats of violence motivated by hate or bias, including property damage, harassment, intimidation, or other crimes shall be viewed very seriously and given high priority.

Hate Crime-Defined. Pursuant to Penal Code Sections 422.55 and 422.56, a hate crime is any criminal act or attempted criminal act directed against a person(s), public agency, or private institution based in whole or in part on the victim's actual or perceived race or ethnicity, nationality, religion, sexual orientation, disability, or gender; or, because the victim is associated with a person or group with one of those actual or perceived protected characteristics.

As stated in Penal Code Section 422.87, a "bias motivation" is a pre-existing negative attitude toward actual or perceived characteristics referenced in Penal Code Section 422.55 (see characteristics from Hate Crime Definition above). Depending on the circumstances of each case, bias motivation may include, but is not limited to, hatred, animosity, discriminatory selection of victims (i.e., targeting), resentment, revulsion, contempt, unreasonable fear, paranoia, callousness, desire for social dominance, desire for social bonding with those of one's "own kind," or a perception of the vulnerability of the victim due to the victim's actual or perceived protected characteristic, or association with a person with an actual or perceived protected characteristic, including – but not limited to – disability or gender.

A hate crime includes the following types of conduct motivated by bias:

- Any willful act that by force or threat of force injures, intimidates, threatens, or oppresses any other person, or interferes with the person's free exercise or enjoyment of any legal right(s) or privilege(s);
- Any willful act that defaces, damages, or destroys the real or personal property of any other person or entity for the purpose of intimidating or interfering with the free exercise or enjoyment of any legal right(s) or privilege(s); or,
- Hanging a noose, placing or displaying a sign or symbol (such as a Nazi swastika), or burning or desecrating a religious symbol (such as a cross) on the private property of another without authorization, or at a school, for the purpose of terrorizing a person, as provided in Penal Code Section 11411.

Statutory Definitions. California Penal Code Section 422.56 defines the following terms and phrases:

"Association with a person or group with [the] actual or perceived characteristics," includes advocacy for, identification with, or being on the property owned, rented by, or adjacent to the individual, family, community center, educational facility, office, meeting hall, place of worship, private institution, public agency, library, or other entity, group, or person which has, or is identified with the person who has the characteristic targeted.

“Disability” includes mental and/or physical disability, as defined in Government Code Section 12926, regardless of whether said disability is temporary, permanent, congenital, or acquired by heredity, accident, injury, advanced age, or illness.

“Gender” means sex and includes a person’s gender identity and gender expression.

“Gender expression” means a person’s gender related appearance and behavior whether or not stereotypically associated with the person’s assigned sex at birth.

“In whole or in part because of,” means that the bias motivation must be a cause in fact of the offense, whether or not other causes also exist. When multiple concurrent motives exist, the prohibited bias must be a substantial factor in bringing about the particular result. There is no requirement that the bias be a main factor, or that the crime would not have been committed but for the actual or perceived characteristic. This subdivision does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, existing law under In re M.S. (1995) 10 Cal. 698 and People v. Superior Court (Aishman) (1995) 10 Cal. 4th 735.

“Nationality” includes country of origin, immigration status, including citizenship, and national origin.

“Race or ethnicity” includes ancestry, color, and ethnic background.

“Religion” includes all aspects of religious belief, observance and practice and includes agnosticism and atheism.

“Sexual orientation” means heterosexuality, homosexuality, or bisexuality.

“Terrorize” means to cause a person of ordinary emotions and sensibilities to fear for their personal safety.

“Victim” includes but is not limited to, a person, individual, family, group, entity, community center, educational facility, office, meeting hall, place of worship, private institution, public agency, library, or other victim or intended victim of the offense.

Hate Incident-Defined. A hate incident is any non-criminal act, including words, directed against a person(s) based on that person’s actual or perceived protected characteristics. Hate incidents are differentiated from hate crimes because they do not violate and are not punishable under criminal law statutes. Rather, such incidents are generally protected free speech under the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

Hate incidents include, but are not limited to, epithets, distribution of hate material in public places, posting of hate material on public property that does not result in property damage, and the display of hate material on one’s own property. However, if over an extended period of time a person directs numerous bigoted, biased, or prejudiced statements to the same person, such a pattern of conduct could rise to the level of unlawful criminal harassment or stalking under certain state laws, including but not limited to California Penal Code Section 646.9 – Stalking.

In compliance with California Penal Code Section 422.87, officers shall specifically evaluate the following when investigating a crime or incident of suspected disability-bias:

- Whether there is any indication that the suspect was motivated by hostility or other bias, occasioned by factors such as, but not limited to:
 - Dislike of persons who arouse fear or guilt;
 - A perception that persons with disabilities are inferior and therefore “deserving victims”;
 - A fear of persons whose visible traits are perceived as being disturbing to others;
 - Resentment of those who need, demand, or receive alternative educational, physical, or social accommodations; and,
- Whether there is any indication that the suspect perceived the victim to be vulnerable and, if so, if this perception is grounded, in whole or in part, in anti-disability bias. This includes, but is not limited to, if a suspect targets a person with a particular perceived disability while avoiding other vulnerable-appearing persons such as inebriated persons or persons with perceived disabilities different than those of the victim, those circumstances could be evidence that the suspect’s motivations included bias against persons with the perceived disability of the victim and that the crime shall therefore be reported as a suspected hate crime and not a mere crime of opportunity.

In compliance with California Penal Code Section 422.87, when investigating a crime or incident of suspected religious-bias, officers shall specifically evaluate whether there were targeted attacks on, or biased references to, symbols of importance or articles considered of spiritual significance in a particular religion. Examples of religions and such symbols and articles include, but are not limited to:

- In Buddhism, statues of the Buddha;
- In Christianity, crosses;
- In Hinduism, forehead markings, known as bindis and tilaks, Aum/Om symbols, and images of deities known as murtis;
- In Islam, hijabs;
- In Judaism, Stars of David, menorahs, and yarmulke; and,
- In Sikhism, turbans, head coverings, and unshorn hair, including beards.

The general underreporting of hate crimes, especially anti-disability and anti-gender crimes is an identified issue in California. Underreporting is caused by victims not reporting hate crimes or hate incidents due to a number of factors, including fear of reprisal and the belief that law enforcement will not properly investigate them. The Department recognizes the prevalence of underreporting of hate crimes in the City, and its commitment to vigilantly identify, document, investigate, and pursue prosecution of hate crimes is one of its strategic enforcement goals.

The bias motivation, or “Hatred or Prejudice” need not be the main, sole, or a major factor when classifying a crime or incident to be motivated by hatred or prejudice. Department personnel will classify reports as motivated by hatred or prejudice when evidence of such motivation, whether direct or circumstantial, is present.

As a result of community engagement efforts, the Department has developed an additional reporting option for Hate Incidents, through its Community Online Reporting Service (CORS) within the public facing website.

Note: Online reporting of hate incidents does not require the completion of supplemental forms at the time of reporting. A hate incident/crime resource pamphlet will be automatically sent to the individual filing the report via e-mail upon submission of an online hate incident report.*

The following delineates Department personnel’s specific responsibilities for at scene/in person and CORS online reporting.

Employee’s Responsibilities. A Department employee (either civilian or sworn) who becomes aware of a crime or incident motivated by hatred or prejudice shall:

- Investigate the crime or incident in a timely manner directly, or by way of notification to the appropriate personnel, entity, and/or agency if:
- The employee is personally involved in the incident; or,
- The employee is made aware of the incident while off-duty.
- Notify the watch commander of the Area of occurrence;
- Notify the Department Operations Center (DOC), Communications Division, and document the notification in the related report;
- Complete the appropriate incident, crime, or arrest report(s) and check the “MOTIVATED BY HATRED/PREJUDICE” box. If the incident does not constitute a specific crime, the Investigative Report (IR), Form 03.01.00, shall be titled “Hate Incident;”
- Enter the protected characteristic, along with the specific hate crime/incident facts into the Modus Operandi (MO) box for coding purposes;
- Complete the Hate Crime Supplemental Report, Form 03.01.05;
- Complete the Request for Confidentiality of Information, Form 03.02.00 (not required for Hate Incidents or if the victim is a business);
- Provide the victim with a Hate Crime Resource Pamphlet, Form 15.91.00, and a Marsy’s Law pamphlet; and,
- Ensure that every available resource, including but not limited to, language interpreters, Crisis Response Teams, information on local advocacy groups, etc., is provided to victims of Hate Crimes and Hate Incidents. Department employees shall also be guided by Training Bulletin Volume XLIX, Issue 12, dated November 2020, and titled, “Foreign Language Interpreters and Resources,” when an individual speaks a foreign language.

DEPARTMENT MANUAL
VOLUME IV
Revised by Special Order No. 20 , 2023

Investigation by Field Units. Field units assigned to calls or discovering crimes or incidents motivated by hatred or prejudice shall:

- Investigate the crime or incident and take appropriate action;
- Telephonically notify the watch commander of the crime or incident;
- Request a field supervisor to their location;
- Complete an IR and/or Arrest Report, Form 05.02.00, on all crimes or incidents motivated by hatred or prejudice and check the “MOTIVATED BY HATRED/PREJUDICE” box;

Note: An IR shall be completed whenever an officer becomes aware of any incident, whether criminal or non-criminal which meets the criteria of an incident motivated by hatred or prejudice. Officers shall not direct a reporting person to the CORS platform to make a report. The unwillingness of the victim related to an incident motivated by hatred or prejudice to sign a report, or the absence of a victim to the incident, does not exempt officers from the requirement to complete an IR regarding the incident.

- Enter the protected characteristic along with the specific hate crime/incident facts into the Modus Operandi (MO) box for coding purposes;
- Complete the Hate Crime Supplemental Report and attach it as the last two pages of the IR and/or Arrest Report;
- Complete the Request for Confidentiality of Information (not required for Hate Incidents or if the victim is a business); and,
- Provide the victim with a Hate Crime Resource Pamphlet and a Marsy’s Law Resource Pamphlet.

If the circumstances of an incident do not provide the corpus delicti of a specific crime, officers shall complete a short form IR titled “Hate Incident.” In cases where there is no specific crime, officers shall not list persons possibly responsible for the incident as suspects, rather such persons shall be listed in the “Involved Persons” section of the IR.

Note: Absent reasonable suspicion of a crime, officers do not have the legal authority to detain persons involved in a Hate Incident, where the individual is exercising their constitutional right to free speech.

When investigating a crime, officers should remain mindful that there are, at times, individuals who call the police and make false or ill-informed claims of misconduct about persons they dislike or are biased against (e.g., ethnic and religious minorities, immigrants, disabled individuals, homeless people). California Assembly Bill 1775 (enacted on September 30, 2020), reiterates the Ralph Civil Rights Act of 1976, whereby it not only prohibits, but also assesses civil and criminal penalties for instances when an individual knowingly and willfully threatens to notify, contacts, or files a false claim with law enforcement personnel in furtherance of their bias(es) against another.

Therefore, Department personnel must be vigilant in their investigations with presumptive victims and witnesses, so as not to engage in bias-motivated detentions, interrogations, or arrests. As in all situations, officers are reminded to act professionally and accurately evaluate the facts and risks of each individual case. A biased individual who makes a report to the police can generate accusatory claims by police and outraged denials of wrongdoing by the accused all of which can lead to unjust outcomes.

Supervisor's Responsibilities. A supervisor assigned to the scene of an incident motivated by hatred or prejudice shall document their response and actions on a Sergeants Daily Report, Form 15.48.00. The supervisor shall:

- Immediately respond to the scene;
- Ensure that an IR, and/or Arrest Report, along with the Hate Crime Supplemental Report, and Request for Confidentiality of Information (where appropriate) are completed for crimes or incidents motivated by hatred or prejudice; and,
- Ensure the victim was provided a Hate Crime Resource Pamphlet and a Marsy's Law Resource Pamphlet.

Watch Commander's Responsibilities. Upon notification that a crime or incident motivated by hatred or prejudice has occurred, the watch commander shall:

- Direct a supervisor to immediately respond to the scene of a crime or incident motivated by hatred such as where there is major property damage involved, injury to a victim, or vandalism to a house of worship;

A Hate Crime includes an act which results in injury, however slight; a verbal threat of violence which apparently can be carried out; an act which results in property damage; other criminal act(s) directed against a public or private agency; and, the placing or displaying of a sign, mark, symbol, emblem, or other physical impression, including, but not limited to, a Nazi swastika or noose, or burning a cross or other religious symbol, on the private property of another without authorization, on the property of a school, college campus, public place, place of worship, cemetery, or place of employment for the purpose of terrorizing the owner or occupant, or a person who attends, works at, or is otherwise associated with the school, college campus, public place, place of worship, cemetery, or place of employment.

POLICY STATEMENTS:

The City of Los Angeles values the great diversity of its people and recognizes that a threat against any portion of our community is truly a threat against our diverse way of life. Acts or threats of violence motivated by hatred or prejudice are serious acts, often vicious in nature, which tear at the fabric of our community. These occurrences generate fear and concern among victims as well as the entire community and have the potential of recurring, escalating and possibly causing counter-violence.

It is the policy of the Los Angeles Police Department to ensure that the rights of all people, as guaranteed by the Constitutions of the United States and the State of California, are protected. Among those constitutional guarantees is the right of all people to live without fear of attack by or threat from an individual or group due to hatred or prejudice. An act or a threat of violence motivated by hatred or prejudice threatens this constitutional guarantee and generates fear and concern among victims and the public. When any act motivated by hatred or prejudice occurs, the Department will ensure that it is dealt with on a priority basis and use every necessary legal resource to rapidly and decisively identify the suspects and bring them to justice.
