DEPARTMENT MANUAL
VOLUME I
Revised by Special Order No.14, 2023

573. USE OF INTERMEDIATE FORCE OPTIONS. Use of an Electronic Control Device (i.e., TASER), Impact Device (e.g., Baton), Kinetic Energy Projectile (e.g., Beanbag Shotgun, 40mm Less-Lethal Launcher, FN 303), or certain Chemical Agents (e.g., Oleoresin Capsicum) is an appropriate force option when an officer reasonably believes either of the following:

- There is an immediate threat to the safety of the officers or others; or,
- If the threat is not immediately addressed, there is an articulable risk the incident could escalate to the use of deadly force.

Intermediate force options should not be used on a suspect or subject who is believed to be unarmed, and, is passively resisting or merely failing to comply with commands. Verbal threats of violence alone do not justify the use of an intermediate force option.

573.01. USE OF ELECTRONIC CONTROL DEVICE (TASER). Each application and subsequent re-activation of the TASER shall be objectively reasonable and proportional based upon the totality of the circumstances. When administering the TASER as a force option, Department personnel should continually assess to determine if the continued application of the TASER is appropriate and effective. Department personnel should avoid simultaneous activations of the TASER on a single subject or suspect.

Department personnel shall not administer a TASER using the drive-stun method (excluding three-point and four-point drive-stun) to any subject or suspect, unless articulable circumstances exist justifying the need for drive-stun mode. These circumstances include:

- When probe mode (or three-point/four-point drive stun mode) is not feasible or is ineffective;
- When the officer is unable to re-deploy away from the suspect or subject; or,
- When the officer is unable to transition to another force option due to the violent nature of the altercation.

The Department uses the objectively reasonable standard and considers the totality of the circumstances when evaluating the reasonableness of force used, which includes the number of times a particular force option was utilized. If the force option being utilized appears to be ineffective, Department personnel should consider transitioning to another, potentially more effective force option or tactic.

Note: Department personnel should refer to the applicable Use of Force Directive for the Electronic Control Device they are deploying for the specific nomenclature and operational procedures.
