710.40 PROCEDURE TO REVIEW "CLEARED OTHER" MURDER INVESTIGATIONS.

Detective Division Homicide Coordinator's Responsibilities. Upon receiving a close-out Follow-Up Investigation, Form 03.14.00, and classifying the case status of a murder investigation as "Cleared Other," homicide coordinators shall forward the Follow-Up Investigation to the Area Detective Commanding Officer (CO) for review and approval.

Once the signed and approved Follow-Up Investigation is returned, the Area homicide coordinator shall ensure that the investigating officer (I/O) completes the "Cleared Other" Checklist in its entirety, and inserts it behind one of the miscellaneous areas within Sections 24, 25 or 26 of the Murder Book, Form 03.11.01. The I/O shall handwrite "Cleared Other" Checklist on the appropriate section of the Table of Contents and Murder Book.

Note: Robbery-Homicide Division (RHD) shall be the ONLY entity approved to update the Consolidated Crime Analysis Database (CCAD) on "Cleared Other" homicide cases.

Area Detective Commanding Officer's Responsibilities. The concerned Area Detective CO shall review the close-out Follow-Up Investigation report classifying the case status of a murder investigation as "Cleared Other" to ensure that it properly meets the Detective Operations Manual guidelines and the Federal Bureau of Investigation Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook guidelines for "Exceptional Clearances." If it does, the Detective CO shall complete and sign his or her name on the appropriate approval block on the last page of the Follow-Up Investigation, and forward the original report along with an Intradepartmental Correspondence, Form 15.02.00, to the CO, RHD. The Intradepartmental Correspondence shall be routed via the Area CO and geographic bureau CO for review.

Area Commanding Officer's Responsibilities. The concerned Area CO shall review the close-out Follow-Up Investigation report classifying the case status of a murder investigation as "Cleared Other" and if in agreement, he or she shall complete and sign his or her name on the appropriate approval block on the last page of the Follow-Up Investigation, and forward the original report to the geographic bureau CO for review.

Geographic Bureau Commanding Officer's Responsibilities. The concerned geographic bureau CO shall review the close-out Follow-Up Investigation report classifying the case status of a murder investigation as "Cleared Other" and if in agreement, he or she shall complete and sign his or her name on the appropriate approval block on the last page of the Follow-Up Investigation, prior to the submission to RHD for review. In addition, the bureau CO shall review and process the Follow-up Investigation reports that are received after RHD's review.

Note: If the concerned bureau CO disagrees with the findings and/or recommendations of RHD when the Follow-Up Investigation is returned for processing, he or she must submit an Intradepartmental Correspondence outlining his or her rationale to the Chief of Detectives, Detective Bureau. The final reviewing authority shall be the Chief of Detectives.

DEPARTMENT MANUAL
VOLUME IV
Revised by Special Order No. 1, 2017

Robbery-Homicide Division Commanding Officer's Responsibilities. Upon receipt of a close-out Follow-Up Investigation report classifying the case status of a murder investigation as "Cleared Other," the CO, RHD, shall assign a lieutenant and senior detective from Homicide Special Section to review the report. The assigned senior detective, RHD, shall conduct a review of the murder Follow-Up Investigation report.

Concurrence. If concurrence with the "Cleared Other" classification is met, the appropriate approval block on the last page of the Follow-Up Investigation shall be stamped and signed by the CO, RHD, documenting RHD's agreement with the classification. The case shall be cleared in CCAD by RHD personnel and the Follow-Up Investigation report shall be forwarded with an Intradepartmental Correspondence to the concerned bureau CO for processing.

Note: Robbery-Homicide Division is responsible for updating CCAD of the "Cleared Other" status before sending it back to the concerned bureau CO for processing.

Non-Concurrence. If RHD does not concur with the "Cleared Other" classification, RHD shall meet with the investigating detective. The CO, RHD, shall generate an Intradepartmental Correspondence documenting the rationale for non-concurrence and, if appropriate, request additional investigation and/or documented articulation to support the "Cleared Other" classification. The Follow-Up Investigation shall be forwarded with an Intradepartmental Correspondence to the concerned bureau CO for his or her review.

Note: These documents shall be hand carried between commands.

Chief of Detectives Responsibilities. The Chief of Detectives shall have final approval authority for close-out Follow-Up Investigation reports classifying the case status of a murder investigation as "Cleared Other."
