August 21, 2018

TO: All Concerned Personnel

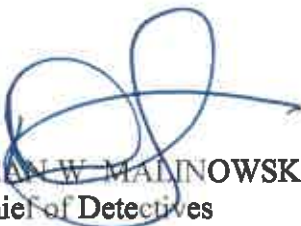

FROM: Chief of Detectives

SUBJECT: INVITATION TO SWORN PERSONNEL TO ATTEND THE 2018
LEAPS TRAINING SYMPOSIUM

The Los Angeles Police Department is hosting the Law Enforcement and Private Security (LEAPS) Training Symposium. The symposium will be held on Wednesday, September 12, 2018, 8:00 a.m. until 11:30 a.m., at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, 5905 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California 90036. Topics of discussion are infrastructure, cybersecurity and efforts to continue public/private partnerships and collaboration. Chief of Police Michel Moore will conduct the opening remarks for the symposium. The goal is to reaffirm the partnership efforts through communication and collaboration.

Area Commanding Officers or one designee are encouraged to attend. Registration must be completed on the LEAPS website, www.leapsla.org by selecting the "Registration" link. Registration must be completed on or before September 10, 2018. This process must be strictly adhered to because LEAPS will be covering the registration fee.

Should you require additional information, please contact Detective Joseph Hopkins, Commercial Crimes Division, at (213) 533-4683.

SEAN W. MALINOWSKI, Deputy Chief
