LD18 Investigative Report Writing
EV9 Critical Incident
S6 211 Arrest Report Narrative

Learning Activity #1

Purpose:

This learning activity gives the student the opportunity to conduct an investigation, practice their interview skills, and practice writing their notes in preparation to write an investigative report.

Description:

Recruit officers will be responding to a R/C "ADW Suspect There Now. Suspect (include role-player's description) armed with a Knife/ Bat / Stick/ Pipe threatening possible victim." P/R observed the incident and called the police. P/R is GOA.

As the officers arrived, the suspect is still at scene. The suspect will look in the officer's direction drop the weapon and attempted to flee the location. The officers should detain and arrest the suspect. Victim stated that he/ she was walking to the store when the suspect approached him/her and struck him/her with a pipe. The suspect fled the location on foot.

The victim should not allow the recruits to move forward in their investigation until the appropriate actions have been taken to reassure the victim and gain cooperation. Recruit officers should:

- Separate parties involved
- Address the injury (If Any)
- Call for and RA – (if needed)
- Protect evidence and crime scene- If any
- Interview the victim / witness – if applicable
- Photographs
- Give the victim Marsy's card and indemnify
- SID and other notifications – if necessary
- Leave business

Choose (2) recruits to role play the role of the officers; (instructor / recruits) will play the role of a victim and third recruit to play the role of the suspect. The rest of the class will listen in and take notes to complete the report.

Use the attached victim information sheet for the scenario. After scenario is complete debrief the scenario. When Scenario is over debrief the scenario with the class.
