

COUNTER-TERRORISM AND SPECIAL OPERATIONS BUREAU

NOTICE

May 22, 2018

15.2

TO: All Commanding Officers

FROM: Commanding Officer, Counter-Terrorism and Special Operations Bureau

SUBJECT: BOMB SQUAD PRESENTATIONS AT TRAINING DAYS

This notice serves to remind commanding officers that personnel from the Bomb Squad, Emergency Services Division are available to provide training at the divisional and bureau level.

In support of the Department's Action Plan to 2020, Strategic Goal No. 4, Emphasize Preparedness and Counter-Terrorism, bomb technicians and explosives detection K9 officers are available to provide training on explosives-related topics. The intent of the training is to enhance the safety and effectiveness of Department personnel by reinforcing proper protocols and identifying potential hazards faced by officers who respond to explosives-related incidents.

Training topics could include response to bomb threats, suspicious items/vehicles, or a major bombing event. Bomb Squad personnel will tailor the presentation to meet the specific needs and available time of those employees attending the training. Consistent with the scope of the training, and with support from the requesting commanding officer, Bomb Squad personnel can develop and present relevant scenarios which include participation of the involved employees.

To request training, please contact Officer Brendan McCarty, ESD, at 25905@lapd.online.

If you have any questions, please contact Sergeant Michael Salinaz or Officer Brendan McCarty, Bomb Squad, ESD, at (323) 342-4200.
