Commissioners,

LAPD killed 18 people in 2021, with 5 killings in the last 2 weeks of the year. Since the last police commission meeting on December 14th, LAPD has killed Rosendo Olivo Jr, Margarito Lopez, Daniel Elena Lopez, Valentina Orellana Peralta, and Enrique Ruiz. These murders are an ongoing reminder that police do not provide safety and cannot offer solutions to folks who are in crisis and need help; they are trained to kill and they view community members as threats. Even Valentina Orellana Peralta, who was hiding in a dressing room with her mother when she was killed, was treated as collateral damage in a police assault on Daniel Elena Lopez. Police are inherently violent and especially devalue the lives of folks that are Black or brown. These killings are part of a pattern in police violence that cannot be reformed.

LAPD cop William Dorsey Jones, the shooter of Valentina Orellana Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez, was even a community relations officer for LAPD's community policing, a program LAPD expanded in 2020 under the guise of reform and "building trust." LAPD will inevitably ask for more funding for programs and training in response to the killings by Dorsey Jones and other cops. These murders by police must end, we demand LAPD is defunded!

In addition to asking for an increased budget of $213M this year from the city of LA, on this week's agenda alone LAPD is asking for an increase of $38.5M in its existing contract with LACMTA and over $2.7M in grants and donations - that's an increase of over $41M for LAPD, just for this week's agenda items. Stop this deadly cycle. Defund LAPD.

Regarding public comment - let people speak after agenda items! The community must have input on agenda items after hearing additional information on the item; it is through fear of public knowledge and public comment that the Police Commission does not currently allow this.

Decrease Moore's time and open up public comment, with no restrictions on number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

Dear Board of Commissioners and City Council Members:

As a citizen of Los Angeles District 11 I'm writing to submit public comments to the LAPC Meeting.

General Public Comment: LAPC Conveniently Canceling and Shortening Meetings

I find it extremely frustrating that every time LAPD scandals are brought to the attention of the public that you cancel your meetings. Whether it's for the Echo Park raid, the South LA explosion, or the murder of Valentina Orellana Peralta, you cancel your meetings to escape the demands of the public. When meetings do come back, you often shorten them. It's like clockwork. It is also antithetical to the role you and your commission are supposed to play. We the people demand that you show up to hear our complaints about the violence you allow LAPD to perpetuate. You need to increase the amount of time you allow people to give public comments NOW.

Agenda Item 5A and General Public Comment: LAPD's Continued Violence

The past few weeks of LAPD's rampant killings again show that police do not provide safety. Evidence shows again and again that putting billions of dollars into policing does not erase crime. In addition, evidence shows again and again that even with all of the "reform," police still keep killing people.

LAPD cop William Dorsey Jones, the shooter of Valentina Orellana Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez, was even a community relations officer for LAPD's community policing, a program LAPD expanded in 2020 under the guise of reform and "building trust." LAPD will inevitably ask for more funding for programs and training in response to the killings by Dorsey Jones and other cops. These murders by police must end, we demand LAPD to be defunded and their budget to create alternatives to community safety such as Portland's CAHOOTS program, Denver's STAR program, and Albuquerque's Crisis Intervention program -- all of which are done WITHOUT police.

General Public Comment: LAPC Meeting Time

Why are these meetings held at the same time as City Council and Board of Supervisor meetings? Can we please change the meeting time so more people can participate in the meetings?

Agenda Item 4B-4H: No more LAPD Funding

In addition to asking for an increased budget of $213M this year from the city of LA, on this week's agenda alone LAPD is asking for an increase of $38.5M in its existing contract with LACMTA and over $2.7M in grants and donations - that's an increase of over $41M for LAPD, just for this week's agenda items. Stop this deadly cycle. Defund LAPD.

Sincerely,
Sarah Bowers
District 11

While you all acted as a rubber stamp body for the LAPD... they killed 18 people last year, with 5 killings of those during the last 2 weeks of the year. Commissioners, LAPD killed 5 people since the last BOPC meeting. While the North Hollywood killings got a lot of attention, for good (and terrible) reason, it's so notable that the other killings by LAPD seemed barely to register as a blip.

Two of the killings were in the same area, and were in the proximity of the neighborhood where LAPD set off the explosives this June. Both of the people killed that day - Rosendo Olivio Jr and Margarito Lopez - seem to have been perhaps in need of aid, but not from a cop. There were clips online from the community related to both killings, but very little from LAPD. One person - Margarito Lopez - was a youth whose family describes him as having a developmental disorder, or disability. LAPD additionally killed Daniel Elena Lopez and Valentina Orellana Peralta unnecessarily. Enrique Ruiz was killed at the gas station in Eagle Rock, in what is again a very unclear situation, except that this was a person in need, and LAFD called LAPD. Police are not equipped to respond to these situations and will never be, this is why we are demanding that police are defunded, and alternative responses to the police as well as preventative and supportive community services are funded instead. People in crisis and people with disabilities are not disposable.

That brings me to COVID - it is quite remarkable to read Moore stating in the LA Times that he doesn't think the increased cases of COVID at LAPD are due to cops not wearing masks. What a statement. It is also terrifying when you consider that this is a person at the head of LAPD, which sets the tone (supposedly) for the entire organization and (one would think) has a responsibility to share information with cops about how COVID is transmitted, and how they should act accordingly to not be transmitting covid to community members in confined spaces, including inside jails and LAPD stations - but here we have Moore seemingly dismissing the connection between wearing masks, and the transmission of covid. It is really fucking something. We also need consider that when it comes to mortality rates from covid and who is more likely to die, there is an increased mortality among folks that are poor, disabled, unhoused, Latinx, or Black - naming this as this is who is disproportionately harmed when we dismiss the impact of covid in the community.

We continue to demand a defunding of LAPD. We are not looking for an expansion of policing programs, we want an investment in programs that are free from police. Instead of paying the police to talk to kids and parents about parenting (my god), just invest in the parents. You don't need the cop part. If you look at that study by Loyola Marymount in 2020 that made Soboroff audibly splutter, households that have a cop in the family are actually more supportive of police being defunded than households without a cop.... a very interesting finding that deserves more looking into, no?

defund the police,

Even Valentina Orellana Peralta, who was hiding in a dressing room with her mother when she was killed, was treated as collateral damage in a police assault on Daniel Elena Lopez. Police are inherently violent and especially devalue the lives of folks that are Black or brown. These killings are part of a pattern in police violence that cannot be reformed.

LAPD cop William Dorsey Jones, the shooter of Valentina Orellana Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez, was even a community relations officer for LAPD's community policing, a program LAPD expanded in 2020 under the guise of reform and "building trust." LAPD will inevitably ask for more funding for programs and training in response to the killings by Dorsey Jones and other cops. These murders by police must end, we demand LAPD is defunded!

In addition to asking for an increased budget of $213M this year from the city of LA, on this week's agenda alone LAPD is asking for an increase of $38.5M in its existing contract with LACMTA and over $2.7M in grants and donations - that's an increase of over $41M for LAPD, just for this week's agenda items. Stop this deadly cycle. Defund LAPD.

Regarding public comment - let people speak after agenda items! The community must have input on agenda items after hearing additional information on the item; it is through fear of public knowledge and public comment that the Police Commission does not currently allow this.

Decrease Moore's time and open up public comment, with no restrictions on number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

Commissioners,

LAPD killed 18 people in 2021, with 5 killings in the last 2 weeks of the year. Since the last police commission meeting on December 14th, LAPD has killed Rosendo Olivo Jr, Margarito Lopez, Daniel Elena Lopez, Valentina Orellana Peralta, and Enrique Ruiz. These murders are an ongoing reminder that police do not provide safety and cannot offer solutions to folks who are in crisis and need help; they are trained to kill and they view community members as threats. These murders are an ongoing reminder that police do not provide safety and cannot offer solutions to people who are in crisis and need help; their training often encourages them to reach for violence and view community members as threats. Even Valentina Orellana Peralta, who was hiding in a dressing room with her mother when she was killed, was treated as collateral damage in a police assault on Daniel Elena Lopez. The continued killing of LA residents demonstrates the consequences of our existing police system and how it devalues the lives of folks that are Black or brown. These killings are part of a pattern in police violence that cannot be reformed and must be dismantled.

LAPD cop William Dorsey Jones, the shooter of Valentina Orellana Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez, was even a community relations officer for LAPD's community policing, a program LAPD expanded in 2020 under the guise of reform and "building trust." LAPD will inevitably ask for more funding for programs and training in response to the killings by Dorsey Jones and other cops. These murders by police must end and I believe this can only happen if the police are defunded.

In addition to asking for an increased budget of $213M this year from the city of LA, on this week's agenda alone LAPD is asking for an increase of $38.5M in its existing contract with LA Metro and over $2.7M in grants and donations - that's an increase of over $41M for LAPD, just for this week's agenda items. Stop this deadly cycle. Defund LAPD.

Regarding public comment - let people speak after agenda items! The community must have input on agenda items after hearing additional information on the item; it is through fear of public knowledge and public comment that the Police Commission does not currently allow this.

Decrease Moore's time and open up public comment, with no restrictions on number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Other local agencies, including LA Metro, allow public comments for several hours to ensure all community members and stakeholders have an opportunity to weigh in. This Commission must do the same. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

Sincerely,

Commissioners,

LAPD killed 18 people in 2021, with 5 killings in the last 2 weeks of the year. Since the last police commission meeting on December 14th, LAPD has killed Rosendo Olivo Jr, Margarito Lopez, Daniel Elena Lopez, Valentina Orellana Peralta, and Enrique Ruiz. These murders are an ongoing reminder that police do not provide safety and cannot offer solutions to folks who are in crisis and need help; they are trained to kill and they view community members as threats. Even Valentina Orellana Peralta, who was hiding in a dressing room with her mother when she was killed, was treated as collateral damage in a police assault on Daniel Elena Lopez. Police are inherently violent and especially devalue the lives of folks that are Black or brown. These killings are part of a pattern in police violence that cannot be reformed.

LAPD cop William Dorsey Jones, the shooter of Valentina Orellana Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez, was even a community relations officer for LAPD's community policing, a program LAPD expanded in 2020 under the guise of reform and "building trust." LAPD will inevitably ask for more funding for programs and training in response to the killings by Dorsey Jones and other cops. These murders by police must end, we demand LAPD is defunded!

In addition to asking for an increased budget of $213M this year from the city of LA, on this week's agenda alone LAPD is asking for an increase of $38.5M in its existing contract with LACMTA and over $2.7M in grants and donations - that's an increase of over $41M for LAPD, just for this week's agenda items. Stop this deadly cycle. Defund LAPD.

Regarding public comment - let people speak after agenda items! The community must have input on agenda items after hearing additional information on the item; it is through fear of public knowledge and public comment that the Police Commission does not currently allow this.

Decrease Moore's time and open up public comment, with no restrictions on number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

Signed,

Police are inherently violent and especially devalue the lives of folks that are Black or brown. These killings are part of a pattern in police violence that cannot be reformed.

LAPD cop William Dorsey Jones, the shooter of Valentina Orellana Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez, was even a community relations officer for LAPD's community policing, a program LAPD expanded in 2020 under the guise of reform and "building trust." LAPD will inevitably ask for more funding for programs and training in response to the killings by Dorsey Jones and other cops. These murders by police must end, we demand LAPD is defunded!

In addition to asking for an increased budget of $213M this year from the city of LA, on this week's agenda alone LAPD is asking for an increase of $38.5M in its existing contract with LACMTA and over $2.7M in grants and donations - that's an increase of over $41M for LAPD, just for this week's agenda items. Stop this deadly cycle. Defund LAPD.

Regarding public comment - let people speak after agenda items! The community must have input on agenda items after hearing additional information on the item; it is through fear of public knowledge and public comment that the Police Commission does not currently allow this.

Decrease Moore's time and open up public comment, with no restrictions on number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

Commissioners,

LAPD killed 18 people in 2021, with 5 killings in the last 2 weeks of the year. Since the last police commission meeting on December 14th, LAPD has killed Rosendo Olivo Jr, Margarito Lopez, Daniel Elena Lopez, Valentina Orellana Peralta, and Enrique Ruiz. These murders are an ongoing reminder that police do not provide safety and cannot offer solutions to folks who are in crisis and need help; they are trained to kill and they view community members as threats. Even Valentina Orellana Peralta, who was hiding in a dressing room with her mother when she was killed, was treated as collateral damage in a police assault on Daniel Elena Lopez. Police are inherently violent and especially devalue the lives of folks that are Black or brown. These killings are part of a pattern in police violence that cannot be reformed and we refuse to allow this violence to continue unchecked.

LAPD cop William Dorsey Jones, the shooter of Valentina Orellana Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez, was even a community relations officer for LAPD's community policing, a program LAPD expanded in 2020 under the guise of reform and "building trust." LAPD will inevitably ask for more funding for programs and training in response to the killings by Dorsey Jones and other cops. These murders by police must end, we demand LAPD is defunded!

Regarding public comment - let people speak after agenda items! The community must have input on agenda items after hearing additional information on the item; it is through fear of public knowledge and public comment that the Police Commission does not currently allow this.

It is essential that members of the communities most affected by policing are heard openly during public comment. They are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say. We urge you to open up public comment to allow a greater number of speakers to share. It would be efficient to decrease Moore's time to allow for useful information to be shared by community members about the realities of what is taking place vs the untruths, unhelpful ambiguous statements and theoretical speaking that occurs when Moore has the floor.

Commissioners,

You have been on break since December 13th, 2021. Under your leadership, you left parameters where LAPD felt empowered to kill Rosendo Olivo Jr, Margarito Lopez, Daniel Elena Lopez, Valentina Orellana Peralta, and Enrique Ruiz. Under the watchful eye of this commission, LAPD killed 18 people in 2021, with five killings in the last two weeks of the year. These murders are an ongoing reminder that police do not provide safety and cannot offer solutions to folks in crisis who need help. LAPD are trained violence workers who view community members as threats. Even Valentina Orellana Peralta, hiding in a dressing room with her mother when she was shot to death, was treated as collateral damage in a police assault on Daniel Elena Lopez. Police are inherently violent and devalue the lives of black and brown folks. These killings are part of a pattern in police violence that cannot be reformed.

LAPD cop William Dorsey Jones, the shooter of Valentina Orellana Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez, was even a community relations officer for LAPD's community policing, a program LAPD expanded in 2020 under the guise of reform and "building trust." Stop enabling this deadly cycle. Defund LAPD.

Regarding public comment - let people speak after the presentation of agenda items. The community must have input on agenda items after hearing additional information on the item; through fear of public knowledge and public comment, the Police Commission does not currently allow this.

Decrease Moore's time and open up public comment, with no restrictions on the number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Members of the communities most affected by police are by far the most

Commissioners,

Are you aware that last year LAPD killed 18 people?! In the last two weeks of 2021 alone, there were 5 murders. The last police commission meeting was on December 13, and since then, LAPD has killed: Rosendo Olivo Jr, Margarito Lopez, Daniel Elena Lopez, Valentina Orellana Peralta, and Enrique Ruiz. These killings remind us that police DO NOT provide safety and they cannot offer solutions to people who need help or are in crisis. Police view community members as threats and they are trained to kill. Do you know about Valentina Orellana-Peralta? She was 14 years old and was hiding in a dressing room with her mother when she was killed. She was treated as collateral damage in a police assault on Daniel Elena Lopez. We know, from years and years of evidence, that police are inherently violent and they especially devalue the lives of Black and Brown people.

William Dorsey Jones is the LAPD officer who shot Valentina Orellana-Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez. William Dorsey Jones is a murderer, and he was even a community relations officer for the LAPD community policing program that was expanded in 2020 under the guise of reform and "building trust." LAPD will continue to ask for more money for programs and training in response to the killings by Dorsey Jones and other cops. We demand that LAPD be defunded! Our tax dollars go to police departments so that they can continue to murder people. We are literally paying for men with guns to run around town pretending to protect and serve us while they are really murdering our community members. These murders must stop!

Not only did LAPD ask for an increased budget of $213M this year from the city of LA but THIS WEEK ALONE they are asking for an increase of $38.5M in its existing contract with LACMTA and over $2.7M in grants and donations. This is an increase of over 41 MILLION DOLLARS for LAPD just for this week's agenda items. This is a deadly cycle that must be stopped.

In regards to public comment, please please please let people speak after the agenda items. The community should be able to give input on items AFTER hearing any additional information. You are currently not allowing this because you are afraid of public knowledge and public comment. Because you know that this is wrong. If your body and the LAPD claim to be serving OUR best interests, then why are you so afraid of listening to us? It's your job to hold the police accountable. It shouldn't need on us to hold you accountable to do your job, but it is. Because you aren't doing it.

Decrease Moore's time and open up public comment. There should be no restrictions on the number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. The members of communities most affected by policing are far and away the most knowledgeable about the real impacts of the decisions that this board makes. They know about LAPD in their neighborhoods. You have to hear from them. From all of us. Or else your entire job is a farce. A ruse designed to make us feel as though there are people looking out for us.

It is obvious that the reason crime increases is because peoples' needs are not being met. We are in a deadly, global pandemic and people are losing jobs and homes all the time. The number of unhoused people on the streets has increased. And this board has the opportunity to make life better and easier for all of us. But instead you consistently choose to give the police more money and allow them to literally get away with murder.

Please change your way of operating. Listen to us. It's exhausting to have to ask for the same things again and again and receive silence, denial, and lies in return.

Signed,
Lex Ryan

Cowardly Crooked Commissioners,

Since the last police commission meeting on December 13th, LAPD has murdered Rosendo Olivo Jr, Margarito Lopez, Daniel Elena Lopez, Valentina Orellana Peralta, and Enrique Ruiz. How did police provide them with safety? How did they offer a solution to folks who were in crisis and actually needed help?

These pigs populate our communities and continue to kill, terrorize, and harrass community members. Even Valentina Orellana Peralta, who was hiding in a dressing room with her mother when she was killed, was treated as collateral damage in a police assault on Daniel Elena Lopez. Police are inherently violent and especially devalue the lives of folks that are Black or brown. These killings are part of a pattern in police violence that cannot be reformed.

LAPD killed 18 people in 2021, with 5 killings in the last 2 weeks of the year. This number doesn't include Auzie Houchins or Ramon Reyes. This number doesn't include how many people they infected with COVID as a result of non-mask wearing and who ultimately died as a result of their COVID infection.

LAPD cop William Dorsey Jones, the shooter of Valentina Orellana Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez, was even a community relations officer for LAPD's community policing, a program LAPD expanded into a fucking bureau in 2020 under the guise of reform and "building trust." LAPD will inevitably ask for more funding for programs and training in response to the killings by Jones and other cops. Jones even went through your bullshit training a few weeks before he murdered Valentina Orellana Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez. These murders by police must end, we demand LAPD is defunded!

In addition to asking for an increased budget of $213M this year from the city of LA, on this week's agenda alone LAPD is asking for an increase of $38.5M in its existing contract with LACMTA and over $2.7M in grants and donations - that's an increase of over $41M for LAPD, just for this week's agenda items. Commissioners,

LAPD killed 18 people in 2021, with 5 killings in the last 2 weeks of the year. Since the last police commission meeting on December 13th, LAPD has killed Rosendo Olivo Jr, Margarito Lopez, Daniel Elena Lopez, Valentina Orellana Peralta, and Enrique Ruiz. These murders are an ongoing reminder that police do not provide safety and cannot offer solutions to folks who are in crisis and need help; they are trained to kill and they view community members as threats. Even Valentina Orellana Peralta, who was hiding in a dressing room with her mother when she was killed, was treated as collateral damage in a police assault on Daniel Elena Lopez. Police are inherently violent and especially devalue the lives of folks that are Black or brown. These killings are part of a pattern in police violence that cannot be reformed.

LAPD cop William Dorsey Jones, the shooter of Valentina Orellana Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez, was even a community relations officer for LAPD's community policing, a program LAPD expanded in 2020 under the guise of reform and "building trust." LAPD will inevitably ask for more funding for programs and training in response to the killings by Dorsey Jones and other cops. These murders by police must end, we demand LAPD is defunded!

In addition to asking for an increased budget of $213M this year from the city of LA, on this week's agenda alone LAPD is asking for an increase of $38.5M in its existing contract with LACMTA and over $2.7M in grants and donations - that's an increase of over $41M for LAPD, just for this week's agenda items. Stop this deadly cycle. Defund LAPD.

Commissioners,

LAPD killed 18 people in 2021, with 5 killings in the last 2 weeks of the year. Since the last police commission meeting on December 13th, LAPD has killed Rosendo Olivo Jr, Margarito Lopez, Daniel Elena Lopez, Valentina Orellana Peralta, and Enrique Ruiz. These murders are an ongoing reminder that police do not provide safety and cannot offer solutions to folks who are in crisis and need help; they are trained to kill and they view community members as threats. Even Valentina Orellana Peralta, who was hiding in a dressing room with her mother when she was killed, was treated as collateral damage in a police assault on Daniel Elena Lopez. Police are inherently violent and especially devalue the lives of folks that are Black or brown. These killings are part of a pattern in police violence that cannot be reformed.

LAPD cop William Dorsey Jones, the shooter of Valentina Orellana Peralta and Daniel Elena Lopez, was even a community relations officer for LAPD's community policing, a program LAPD expanded in 2020 under the guise of reform and "building trust." LAPD will inevitably ask for more funding for programs and training in response to the killings by Dorsey Jones and other cops. These murders by police must end, we demand LAPD is defunded!

In addition to asking for an increased budget of $213M this year from the city of LA, on this week's agenda alone LAPD is asking for an increase of $38.5M in its existing contract with LACMTA and over $2.7M in grants and donations - that's an increase of over $41M for LAPD, just for this week's agenda items. Stop this deadly cycle. Defund LAPD.

Regarding public comment - let people speak after agenda items! The community must have input on agenda items after hearing additional information on the item; it is through fear of public knowledge and public comment that the Police Commission does not currently allow this.

Decrease Moore's time and open up public comment, with no restrictions on number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

Signed,
Ted Trembinski

Commissioners, Councilmembers and Mayor:

I am horrified at the absolute silence of all of you since the killing spree that LAPD terrorized this city with last month. Your complicity in this knows no bounds. I honestly do not understand how you sleep at night. This terror has but one job, to uphold white supremacy, institutional racism stoking individual bigotries in this city at every turn. Week after week when your supposed oversight body even does manage to meet, we see everything the LAPD does get rubber stamped. When is this going to stop?
