Commissioners,

LAPD continues to use the narrative of policing human trafficking to direct more money and resources to its Human Trafficking Task Force (HTTF), a unit that primarily polices and criminalizes sex workers. Under the guise of "rescue," LAPD deploys surveillance and undercover operations, enacts high numbers of arrests, gathering personal information from folks and using Cellebrite technology to extract data from people's phones for tracking and ongoing analysis, even in cases where they are not charged. LAPD wants to send three cops to a "Human Trafficking Summit" this May. Sponsors of the summit include Motorola and Vigilant Solutions, corporations that profit from the surveillance and criminalization of sexworkers. People harrassed and arrested by LAPD's Human Trafficking Task Force are disproportionately Black, brown, poor, and LGBTQIA+, and their stalking and surveillance by LAPD only creates more harm. The narrative of "rescue" is false and fake. Decriminalize sex work and defund LAPD!

This week the LA Police Foundation is funding a specialized shooting course for eight SWAT cops. The training facility advertises itself as being for "war fighters," a category in which it includes police. Regarding its mission: "We are only trying to help sharpen a small piece of the puzzle for our war fighters when they find themselves in the company of hostile combatants" and to "hone their shooting technique so they can come home to their families, protect their brother in arm, and defend our country from terrorists who wish harm upon the United States of America." LAPD has killed at least 90 people in the last 6 years by shooting them. LAPD continues to classify a person as being "armed with a weapon" if LAPD "perceived" one existed. LAPD views the community as insurgents, and the city as territory to be occupied and "taken back," language often used by Michel Moore when he describes "taking" a neighborhood. This is the language of occupation, dominance, and control by which LAPD feels entitled to murder residents it views as "suspect." We demand an end to this occupation and the looting of city funding by police. We demand communities are funded, not police! Defund LAPD!

In addition: Decrease Moore's time in Police Commission meetings and open up public comment, with no restrictions on number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

Dear Police Commission:

I ask you is Los Angeles, a community for the police to keep us "safe?" Or is Los Angeles a war zone? Am I a citizen to this body of police or am I threat? a person that has to be controlled? Or does that all depend on my zip code? my job? the color of my skin?

LAPD has killed at least 90 people in the last 6 years by shooting them. LAPD continues to classify a person as being "armed with a weapon" and therefore the LAPD has license to KILL.

I am concerned with the upcoming SWAT shooting course, AND the language used to justify the training sounds like SWAT is being trained at WAR. It is one thing if we are under a terrorist invasion- but we are not Ukraine! And LAPD struggles to see their own people as just that- people of Los Angeles.

The training facility advertises itself as being for "war fighters," and its mission: "We are only trying to help sharpen a small piece of the puzzle for our war fighters when they find themselves in the company of hostile combatants" and to "hone their shooting technique so they can come home to their families, protect their brother in arm, and defend our country from terrorists who wish harm upon the United States of America."

LAPD views the community as insurgents, and the city as territory to be occupied and "taken back," language often used by Michel Moore when he describes "taking" a neighborhood. This is the language of occupation, dominance, and control by which LAPD feels entitled to murder residents it views as “suspect.”

We demand an end to this occupation and the looting of city funding by police. We demand communities are funded, not police! PLEASE REALLOCATE THESE DOLLARS TOWARDS CREATION, TOWARDS HELPiNG PEOPLE OF LA, NOT SHOOTING THEM!!

Under the guise of “rescue,” LAPD deploys surveillance and undercover operations, enacts high numbers of arrests, gathering personal information from folks and using Cellebrite technology to extract data from people’s phones for tracking and ongoing analysis, even in cases where they are not charged. LAPD wants to send three cops to a “Human Trafficking Summit” this May. Sponsors of the summit include Motorola and Vigilant Solutions, corporations that profit from the surveillance and criminalization of sexworkers. People harrassed and arrested by LAPD’s Human Trafficking Task Force are disproportionately Black, brown, poor, and LGBTQIA+, and their stalking and surveillance by LAPD only creates more harm. The narrative of “rescue” is false and fake. Decriminalize sex work and defund LAPD!

This week the LA Police Foundation is funding a specialized shooting course for eight SWAT cops. The training facility advertises itself as being for “war fighters,” a category in which it includes police. Regarding its mission: “We are only trying to help sharpen a small piece of the puzzle for our war fighters when they find themselves in the company of hostile combatants” and to “hone their shooting technique so they can come home to their families, protect their brother in arm, and defend our country from terrorists who wish harm upon the United States of America.” LAPD has killed at least 90 people in the last 6 years by shooting them. LAPD continues to classify a person as being “armed with a weapon” if LAPD “perceived” one existed. LAPD views the community as insurgents, and the city as territory to be occupied and “taken back,” language often used by Michel Moore when he describes “taking” a neighborhood. This is the language of occupation, dominance, and control by which LAPD feels entitled to murder residents it views as “suspect.” We demand an end to this occupation and the looting of city funding by police. We demand communities are funded, not police! Defund LAPD!

In addition: Decrease Moore’s time in Police Commission meetings and open up public comment, with no restrictions on number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

We demand an end to this occupation and the looting of city funding by police. We demand communities are funded, not police! Defund LAPD!

In addition: Decrease Moore's time in Police Commission meetings and open up public comment, with no restrictions on number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

Commissioners,

LAPD continues to use the narrative of policing human trafficking to direct more money and resources to its Human Trafficking Task Force (HTTF), a unit that primarily polices and criminalizes sex workers. Under the guise of “rescue,” LAPD deploys surveillance and undercover operations, enacts high numbers of arrests, gathering personal information from folks and using Cellebrite technology to extract data from people’s phones for tracking and ongoing analysis, even in cases where they are not charged. LAPD wants to send three cops to a “Human Trafficking Summit” this May. Sponsors of the summit include Motorola and Vigilant Solutions, corporations that profit from the surveillance and criminalization of sexworkers. People harrassed and arrested by LAPD’s Human Trafficking Task Force are disproportionately Black, brown, poor, and LGBTQIA+, and their stalking and surveillance by LAPD only creates more harm. The narrative of “rescue” is false and fake. Decriminalize sex work and defund LAPD!

This week the LA Police Foundation is funding a specialized shooting course for eight SWAT cops. The training facility advertises itself as being for “war fighters,” a category in which it includes police. Regarding its mission: “We are only trying to help sharpen a small piece of the puzzle for our war fighters when they find themselves in the company of hostile combatants” and to “hone their shooting technique so they can come home to their families, protect their brother in arm, and defend our country from terrorists who wish harm upon the United States of America.” LAPD has killed at least 90 people in the last 6 years by shooting them. LAPD continues to classify a person as being “armed with a weapon” if LAPD “perceived” one existed. LAPD views the community as insurgents, and the city as territory to be occupied and “taken back,” language often used by Michel Moore when he describes “taking” a neighborhood. This is the language of occupation, dominance, and control by which LAPD feels entitled to murder residents it views as “suspect.” We demand an end to this occupation and the looting of city funding by police. We demand communities are funded, not police! Defund LAPD!

Dear Board of Commissioners and City Council Members:

As a citizen of Los Angeles District 11 I'm writing to submit public comments to the LAPC Meeting.

Agenda Item 3D

LAPD continues to use the narrative of policing human trafficking to direct more money and resources to its Human Trafficking Task Force (HTTF), a unit that primarily polices and criminalizes sex workers. Under the guise of "rescue," LAPD deploys surveillance and undercover operations, enacts high numbers of arrests, gathering personal information from folks and using Cellebrite technology to extract data from people's phones for tracking and ongoing analysis, even in cases where they are not charged. LAPD wants to send three cops to a "Human Trafficking Summit" this May. Sponsors of the summit include Motorola and Vigilant Solutions, corporations that profit from the surveillance and criminalization of sexworkers. People harrassed and arrested by LAPD's Human Trafficking Task Force are disproportionately Black, brown, poor, and LGBTQIA+, and their stalking and surveillance by LAPD only creates more harm. The narrative of "rescue" is false and fake. Decriminalize sex work and defund LAPD!

Agenda Item 3E

Using the term "war fighters" for any police officers -whether patrols or SWAT- is gross and disgusting. It is also gross and disgusting for LAPD to fund officers to attend a conference or training that used this term. Crime, which you define in subjective ways to target Black and brown folks, is not a war. People in our city are not performing "war" against the police or anyone. Often those whose actions are labeled as crime are those who have been most left behind by our society due to lack of community services and further targeting by police.

This week the LA Police Foundation is funding a specialized shooting course for eight SWAT cops. The training facility advertises itself as being for "war fighters," a category in which it includes police. Regarding its mission: "We are only trying to help sharpen a small piece of the puzzle for our war fighters when they find themselves in the company of hostile combatants" and to "hone their shooting technique so they can come home to their families, protect their brother in arm, and defend our country from terrorists who wish harm upon the United States of America." LAPD has killed at least 90 people in the last 6 years by shooting them. LAPD continues to classify a person as being "armed with a weapon" if LAPD "perceived" one existed. LAPD views the community as insurgents, and the city as territory to be occupied and “taken back,” language often used by Michel Moore when he describes “taking” a neighborhood. This is the language of occupation, dominance, and control by which LAPD feels entitled to murder residents it views as “suspect.” We demand an end to this occupation and the looting of city funding by police. We demand communities are funded, not police! Defund LAPD!

General Public Comment: Public Comment Limitations

Stop capping your meetings’ public comment period at a mere forty-five minutes. You give 45 minutes for public comment from a city of 4 million people. Despite your weekly protestations to the contrary, you are silencing the voices of Angelenos by limiting who can speak at your meetings, and for how long.

Let people speak after each agenda item; the other way doesn’t make sense.

Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

General Public Comment: LAPC Meeting Time

Why are these meetings held at the same time as City Council and Board of Supervisor meetings? Can we please change the meeting time so more people can participate in the meetings?

Sincerely,
Sarah Bowers

Commissioners,

LAPD continues to use the narrative of policing human trafficking to direct more money and resources to its Human Trafficking Task Force (HTTF), a unit that primarily polices and criminalizes sex workers. Under the guise of “rescue,” LAPD deploys surveillance and undercover operations, enacts high numbers of arrests, gathering personal information from folks and using Cellebrite technology to extract data from people’s phones for tracking and ongoing analysis, even in cases where they are not charged. LAPD wants to send three cops to a “Human Trafficking Summit” this May. Sponsors of the summit include Motorola and Vigilant Solutions, corporations that profit from the surveillance and criminalization of sexworkers. People harrassed and arrested by LAPD’s Human Trafficking Task Force are disproportionately Black, brown, poor, and LGBTQIA+, and their stalking and surveillance by LAPD only creates more harm. The narrative of “rescue” is false and fake. Decriminalize sex work and defund LAPD!

This week the LA Police Foundation is funding a specialized shooting course for eight SWAT cops. The training facility advertises itself as being for “war fighters,” a category in which it includes police. Regarding its mission: “We are only trying to help sharpen a small piece of the puzzle for our war fighters when they find themselves in the company of hostile combatants” and to “hone their shooting technique so they can come home to their families, protect their brother in arm, and defend our country from terrorists who wish harm upon the United States of America.” LAPD has killed at least 90 people in the last 6 years by shooting them. LAPD continues to classify a person as being “armed with a weapon” if LAPD “perceived” one existed. LAPD views the community as insurgents, and the city as territory to be occupied and “taken back,” language often used by Michel Moore when he describes “taking” a neighborhood. This is the language of occupation, dominance, and control by which LAPD feels entitled to murder residents it views as “suspect.” We demand an end to this occupation and the looting of city funding by police. We demand communities are funded, not police! Defund LAPD!

In addition: Decrease Moore’s time in Police Commission meetings and open up public comment, with no restrictions on number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

This is the language of occupation, dominance, and control by which LAPD feels entitled to murder residents it views as “suspect.” We demand an end to this occupation and the looting of city funding by police. We demand communities are funded, not police! Defund LAPD!

In addition: Decrease Moore’s time in Police Commission meetings and open up public comment, with no restrictions on number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their

Commissioners,

LAPD continues to use the narrative of policing human trafficking to direct more money and resources to its Human Trafficking Task Force (HTTF), a unit that primarily polices and criminalizes sex workers. Under the guise of “rescue,” LAPD deploys surveillance and undercover operations, enacts high numbers of arrests, gathering personal information from folks and using Cellebrite technology to extract data from people’s phones for tracking and ongoing analysis, even in cases where they are not charged. LAPD wants to send three cops to a “Human Trafficking Summit” this May. Sponsors of the summit include Motorola and Vigilant Solutions, corporations that profit from the surveillance and criminalization of sexworkers. People harrassed and arrested by LAPD’s Human Trafficking Task Force are disproportionately Black, brown, poor, and LGBTQIA+, and their stalking and surveillance by LAPD only creates more harm. The narrative of “rescue” is false and fake. Decriminalize sex work and defund LAPD!

This week the LA Police Foundation is funding a specialized shooting course for eight SWAT cops. The training facility advertises itself as being for “war fighters,” a category in which it includes police. Regarding its mission: “We are only trying to help sharpen a small piece of the puzzle for our war fighters when they find themselves in the company of hostile combatants” and to “hone their shooting technique so they can come home to their families, protect their brother in arm, and defend our country from terrorists who wish harm upon the United States of America.” LAPD has killed at least 90 people in the last 6 years by shooting them. LAPD continues to classify a person as being “armed with a weapon” if LAPD “perceived” one existed. LAPD views the community as insurgents, and the city as territory to be occupied and “taken back,” language often used by Michel Moore when he describes “taking” a neighborhood. This is the language of occupation, dominance, and control by which LAPD feels entitled to murder residents it views as “suspect.” We demand an end to this occupation and the looting of city funding by police. Dear Commissioners,

I'm writing as someone who is very concerned about the improper use of funds in the LAPD, and also the over-militarization of our police force, which disproportionately harms Black and Brown communities.

It is completely unacceptable that LAPD officers are trained to think of themselves as being at war against the communities they are supposed to serve. Why are we still paying for trainings like this when they've only ever resulted more Angelenos dead in the street after encountering the police?

Commissioners,

LAPD continues to use the narrative of policing human trafficking to direct more money and resources to its Human Trafficking Task Force (HTTF), a unit that primarily polices and criminalizes sex workers. Under the guise of “rescue,” LAPD deploys surveillance and undercover operations, enacts high numbers of arrests, gathering personal information from folks and using Cellebrite technology to extract data from people’s phones for tracking and ongoing analysis, even in cases where they are not charged. LAPD wants to send three cops to a “Human Trafficking Summit” this May. Sponsors of the summit include Motorola and Vigilant Solutions, corporations that profit from the surveillance and criminalization of sexworkers. People harrassed and arrested by LAPD’s Human Trafficking Task Force are disproportionately Black, brown, poor, and LGBTQIA+, and their stalking and surveillance by LAPD only creates more harm. The narrative of “rescue” is false and fake. Decriminalize sex work and defund LAPD!

This week the LA Police Foundation is funding a specialized shooting course for eight SWAT cops. The training facility advertises itself as being for “war fighters,” a category in which it includes police. Regarding its mission: “We are only trying to help sharpen a small piece of the puzzle for our war fighters when they find themselves in the company of hostile combatants” and to “hone their shooting technique so they can come home to their families, protect their brother in arm, and defend our country from terrorists who wish harm upon the United States of America.” LAPD has killed at least 90 people in the last 6 years by shooting them. LAPD continues to classify a person as being “armed with a weapon” if LAPD “perceived” one existed. LAPD views the community as insurgents, and the city as territory to be occupied and “taken back,” language often used by Michel Moore when he describes “taking” a neighborhood. This is the language of occupation, dominance, and control by which LAPD feels entitled to murder residents it views as “suspect.” We demand an end to this occupation and the looting of city funding by police. We demand communities are funded, not police! Defund LAPD!

In addition: Decrease Moore’s time in Police Commission meetings and open up public comment, with no restrictions on number of speakers and no 45-minute time limit. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.
