Subject: My Public Comment for the Board of Police Commissioners - July 11, 2022

To The BOPC:

In the first week of July, the LAPD has killed at least 3 Angelenos. This is despicable.

On this week's agenda, the same as nearly every week, there are thousands of dollars in donations from the LA Police Foundation for various things, including uniforms for a LAPD school program targeting children. Anyone with a basic knowledge of LAPD's history with children should be appalled that LAPD programs with children not only still exist, but continue to expand.

Also on the agenda is over $1 million dollars in grants for the LAPD to do more enforcement targeting people who are allegedly driving under the influence of controlled substances and alcohol. A majority of the grant money is going to LAPD salaries including over $500,000 in overtime alone. We know that LAPD "DUI enforcement" is like any other type of LAPD enforcement: further cause to target Black, brown, immigrant, queer, trans, poor and other populations who bear the brunt of LAPD violence. It's painfully ironic that while these grants awarding the LAPD with funds used to target people supposedly under the influence of controlled substances while in Closed Session at this same meeting, the Commission will be listening to the LAPPL's reasons why LAPD officers under the influence of drugs and alcohol should still be able to carry their guns.

But that isn't the only Closed Session item. The LAPD murder of Samuel Soto, who was shot and killed last July holding a cell phone in his hand, is also on the agenda. While this case is supposedly under investigation at the CA Attorney General's office, we know that this Commission will continue to provide cover for its officers, under a guise of “oversight” to continue to exact lethal violence against people like Samuel Soto.

Again, in the first week of July, LAPD murdered 3 people. People who lived and loved, had families and friends, had happiness and despair. People who didn’t deserve to be gunned down by a $3.2 billion-a-year force of military violence that members of this Commission and the City Councilmembers cc’d on this email continue to allow. I hope when you go to sleep at night, you think of all the families and lives that you have helped tear apart in your role here. They deserve at least that much from you.

Finally, remove the limitations on public comment! Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

Disgustedly,

Mayank Keshaviah

Anyone with a basic knowledge of LAPD's history with children should be appalled that LAPD programs with children not only still exist, but continue to expand.

Also on the agenda is over $1 million dollars in grants for the LAPD to do more enforcement targeting people who are allegedly driving under the influence of controlled substances and alcohol. A majority of the grant money is going to LAPD salaries including over $500,000 in overtime alone. We know that LAPD "DUI enforcement" is like any other type of LAPD enforcement: further cause to target Black, brown, immigrant, queer, trans, poor and other populations who bear the brunt of LAPD violence. It's painfully ironic that while these grants awarding the LAPD with funds used to target people supposedly under the influence of controlled substances while in Closed Session at this same meeting, the Commission will be listening to the LAPPL's reasons why LAPD officers under the influence of drugs and alcohol should still be able to carry their guns.

But that isn't the only Closed Session item. The LAPD murder of Samuel Soto, who was shot and killed last July holding a cell phone in his hand, is also on the agenda. While this case is supposedly under investigation at the CA Attorney General's office, we know that this Commission, will continue to provide cover for its officers, under a guise of "oversight" to continue to exact lethal violence against people like Samuel Soto.

Again, in the first week of July, LAPD has murdered 3 people. People who lived and loved, had families and friends, had happiness and despair. People who didn't deserve to be gunned down by a $3.2 billion a year force of military violence that people on this Commission and the City

Councilmembers cc'd on this email continue to allow. I hope when you go to sleep at night, you think of all the families and lives that you have helped tear apart in your role here. They deserve at least that much from you.

Finally, remove the limitations on public comment! Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

The LAPD killed at least 3 Angelenos in the first week of July. LAPD is now competing with Corona Virus mutations for the highest number of Angeleno lives stolen in one week.

Anyone with a basic knowledge of LAPD's history with children should be appalled that LAPD programs with children not only still exist but continue to expand.

Also on the agenda is over $1 million in grants for the LAPD to do more enforcement targeting people allegedly driving under the influence of controlled substances and alcohol. Most of the grant money goes to LAPD salaries, including over $500,000 in overtime. We know that LAPD "DUI enforcement" is like any other type of LAPD enforcement: further cause to target Black, brown, immigrant, queer, trans, poor, and other populations who bear the brunt of LAPD violence. While this case is supposedly under investigation at the CA Attorney General's office, it is now up to this Commission to continue to provide cover for its officers under the guise of "oversight," exacting lethal violence against people like Samuel Soto or elevating consequences for reprobate murdering officers. What will you choose?

Again, in the first week of July, LAPD murdered three people. People who lived and loved had families and friends and had happiness and despair. People who didn't deserve to be gunned down by a $3.2 billion a year force of military violence that people on this Commission and the City

What will this body and those copied to this email do to protect Angelenos from the weaponized violence the stealthy virus of the LAPD is using to infect and kill the populace of LA? How many more families need to be graveside before you utilize your power and influence to stop LAPD's violence and grow lasting safety, protection, and crime reduction?

Dear Commissioners,

Writing before the BOPC meeting tomorrow to request that more time be allowed for public comment in future meetings. In a city of 4 million, 45 minutes is not enough time for the board to hear all the concerns and agenda item requests from active citizens. Extending the public comment time would be a demonstration that the board is listening to the public as partners and not just listening as requirement of the agenda. Thank you for considering my request,

In the first week of July, the LAPD has killed at least 3 Angelenos. This is despicable.

On this week's agenda, the same as nearly every week, there are thousands of dollars in donations from the LA Police Foundation for various things, including uniforms for a LAPD school program targeting children. Anyone with a basic knowledge of LAPD's history with children should be appalled that LAPD programs with children not only still exist, but continue to expand.

Also on the agenda is over $1 million dollars in grants for the LAPD to do more enforcement targeting people who are allegedly driving under the influence of controlled substances and alcohol. A majority of the grant money is going to LAPD salaries including over $500,000 in overtime alone. We know that LAPD "DUI enforcement" is like any other type of LAPD enforcement: further cause to target Black, brown, immigrant, queer, trans, poor and other populations who bear the brunt of LAPD violence. It's painfully ironic that while these grants awarding the LAPD with funds used to target people supposedly under the influence of controlled substances while in Closed Session at this same meeting, the Commission will be listening to the LAPPL's reasons why LAPD officers under the influence of drugs and alcohol should still be able to carry their guns.

But that isn't the only Closed Session item. The LAPD murder of Samuel Soto, who was shot and killed last July holding a cell phone in his hand, is also on the agenda. While this case is supposedly under investigation at the CA Attorney General's office, we know that this Commission, will continue to provide cover for its officers, under a guise of "oversight" to continue to exact lethal violence against people like Samuel Soto.

Again, in the first week of July, LAPD has murdered 3 people. People who lived and loved, had families and friends, had happiness and despair. People who didn't deserve to be gunned down by a $3.2 billion a year force of military violence that people on this Commission and the City Councilmembers cc'd on this email continue to allow. I hope when you go to sleep at night, you think of all the families and lives that you have helped tear apart in your role here. They deserve at least that much from you.

Finally, remove the limitations on public comment! Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

In the first week of July, the LAPD has killed at least 3 Angelenos. This is despicable.

On this week's agenda, the same as nearly every week, there are thousands of dollars in donations from the LA Police Foundation for various things, including uniforms for a LAPD school program targeting children. Anyone with a basic knowledge of LAPD's history with children should be appalled that LAPD programs with children not only still exist, but continue to expand.

Also on the agenda is over $1 million dollars in grants for the LAPD to do more enforcement targeting people who are allegedly driving under the influence of controlled substances and alcohol. A majority of the grant money is going to LAPD salaries including over $500,000 in overtime alone. We know that LAPD "DUI enforcement" is like any other type of LAPD enforcement: further cause to target Black, brown, immigrant, queer, trans, poor and other populations who bear the brunt of LAPD violence. It's painfully ironic that while these grants awarding the LAPD with funds used to target people supposedly under the influence of controlled substances while in Closed Session at this same meeting, the Commission will be listening to the LAPPL's reasons why LAPD officers under the influence of drugs and alcohol should still be able to carry their guns.

But that isn't the only Closed Session item. The LAPD murder of Samuel Soto, who was shot and killed last July holding a cell phone in his hand, is also on the agenda. While this case is supposedly under investigation at the CA Attorney General's office, we know that this Commission, will continue to provide cover for its officers, under a guise of "oversight" to continue to exact lethal violence against people like Samuel Soto.

Again, in the first week of July, LAPD has murdered 3 people. People who lived and loved, had families and friends, had happiness and despair. People who didn't deserve to be gunned down by a $3.2 billion a year force of military violence that people on this Commission and the City Councilmembers cc'd on this email continue to allow. I hope when you go to sleep at night, you think of all the families and lives that you have helped tear apart in your role here. They deserve at least that much from you.

Finally, remove the limitations on public comment! Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

Signed,
Meg

On this week's agenda, the same as nearly every week, there are thousands of dollars in donations from the LA Police Foundation for various things, including uniforms for a LAPD school program targeting children. Anyone with a basic knowledge of LAPD's history with children should be appalled that LAPD programs with children not only still exist, but continue to expand.

Also on the agenda is over $1 million dollars in grants for the LAPD to do more enforcement targeting people who are allegedly driving under the influence of controlled substances and alcohol. A majority of the grant money is going to LAPD salaries including over $500,000 in overtime alone. We know that LAPD "DUI enforcement" is like any other type of LAPD enforcement: further cause to target Black, brown, immigrant, queer, trans, poor and other populations who bear the brunt of LAPD violence. It's painfully ironic that while these grants awarding the LAPD with funds used to target people supposedly under the influence of controlled substances while in Closed Session at this same meeting, the Commission will be listening to the LAPPL's reasons why LAPD officers under the influence of drugs and alcohol should still be able to carry their guns.

But that isn't the only Closed Session item. The LAPD murder of Samuel Soto, who was shot and killed last July holding a cell phone in his hand, is also on the agenda. While this case is supposedly under investigation at the CA Attorney General's office, we know that this Commission, will continue to provide cover for its officers, under a guise of "oversight" to continue to exact lethal violence against people like Samuel Soto.

Again, in the first week of July, LAPD has murdered 3 people. People who lived and loved, had families and friends, had happiness and despair. People who didn't deserve to be gunned down by a $3.2 billion a year force of military violence that people on this Commission and the City Councilmembers cc'd on this email continue to allow. I hope when you go to sleep at night, you think of all the families and lives that you have helped tear apart in your role here. They deserve at least that much from you.

Finally, remove the limitations on public comment! Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

Commissioners:

I just learned that in the first week of July, the LAPD killed three Angelenos.

What the actual hell is happening?

The LAPD is becoming more bloody and violent by the day. What are you—the body tasked with holding them accountable—actually doing about it? It sure feels like the answer is “nothing.”

On this week’s agenda, the same as nearly every week, there are thousands of dollars in donations from the LA Police Foundation for various things, including uniforms for a LAPD school program targeting children. Anyone with a basic knowledge of LAPD’s history with children should be appalled that LAPD programs with children not only still exist, but continue to expand.

It’s painfully ironic that while these grants awarding the LAPD with funds to target people supposedly under the influence of controlled substances are doled out, in Closed Session at this same meeting the Commission will be listening to the LAPPL’s reasons why LAPD officers under the influence of drugs and alcohol should still be able to carry their guns.

But that isn’t the only Closed Session item. The LAPD murder of Samuel Soto, who was shot and killed last July holding a cell phone in his hand, is also on the agenda. While this case is supposedly under investigation at the CA Attorney General's office, we know that this Commission, will continue to provide cover for its officers, under a guise of "oversight" to continue to exact lethal violence against people like Samuel Soto.

Again, in the first week of July, LAPD has murdered 3 people. People who lived and loved, had families and friends, experienced happiness and despair. People who didn't deserve to be gunned down by a $3.2 billion a year quasi-military force with no accountability.

I hope when you go to sleep at night, you think of all the families and lives that you have helped tear apart in your role here. They deserve at least that much from you.

Finally, remove the limitations on public comment! Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

In the first week of July, the LAPD has killed at least 3 Angelenos. I no longer believe the commission takes these things very seriously, or cares much at all. Nevertheless, I am writing to say: This is despicable.

A majority of the grant money is going to LAPD salaries including over $500,000 in overtime alone. We know that LAPD "DUI enforcement" is like any other type of LAPD enforcement: further cause to target Black, brown, immigrant, queer, trans, poor and other populations who bear the brunt of LAPD violence. It's painfully ironic that while these grants awarding the LAPD with funds used to target people supposedly under the influence of controlled substances while in Closed Session at this same meeting, the Commission will be listening to the LAPPL's reasons why LAPD officers under the influence of drugs and alcohol should still be able to carry their guns.

But that isn't the only Closed Session item. The LAPD murder of Samuel Soto, who was shot and killed last July holding a cell phone in his hand, is also on the agenda. While this case is supposedly under investigation at the CA Attorney General's office, we know that this Commission will continue to provide cover for its officers under a guise of "oversight" to continue to exact lethal violence against people like Samuel Soto.

Again, in the first week of July, LAPD has murdered 3 people. People who lived and loved, had families and friends, had happiness and despair. People who didn't deserve to be gunned down by a $3.2 billion a year force of military violence that people on this Commission and the City Councilmembers cc'd on this email continue to allow. I hope when you go to sleep at night, you think of all the families and lives that you have helped tear apart in your role here. They deserve at least that much from you.

Finally, remove the limitations on public comment. Members of the communities most affected by policing are by far the most knowledgeable about the real-world effects of the matters before the board, and about LAPD in their neighborhoods, and you need to hear what they have to say.

In community,

Michelle King

Commissioners:

In the first week of July, the LAPD has killed at least 3 Angelenos. This is despicable.

On this week's agenda, the same as nearly every week, there are thousands of dollars in donations from the LA Police Foundation for various things, including uniforms for a LAPD school program targeting children. Anyone with a basic knowledge of LAPD's history with children should be appalled that LAPD programs with children not only still exist, but continue to expand.

Also on the agenda is over $1 million dollars in grants for the LAPD to do more enforcement targeting people who are allegedly driving under the influence of controlled substances and alcohol. A majority of the grant money is going to LAPD salaries including over $500,000 in overtime alone. We know that LAPD "DUI enforcement" is like any other type of LAPD enforcement: further cause to target Black, brown, immigrant, queer, trans, poor and other populations who bear the brunt of LAPD violence. It's painfully ironic that while these grants awarding the LAPD with funds used to target people supposedly under the influence of controlled substances while in Closed Session at this same meeting, the Commission will be listening to the LAPPL's reasons why LAPD officers under the influence of drugs and alcohol should still be able to carry their guns.

But that isn't the only Closed Session item. The LAPD murder of Samuel Soto, who was shot and killed last July holding a cell phone in his hand, is also on the agenda.
