092.85 STRUCTURE AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF COMMUNITY-POLICE ADVISORY BOARDS.

Responsibilities. A Community-Police Advisory Board (C-PAB) is comprised of civilian volunteers from the local community of the applicable Area. A C-PAB's role is to advise its Area Commanding Officer about crime and quality of life issues that affect the Area's community. Additionally, C-PABs constitute one of the communication channels between members of the community and the Department. Community-Police Advisory Board members are to disseminate information received from the Department back to the community. Community-Police Advisory Boards are Area specific and one source from which an Area CO receives information.

Bylaws. To ensure that C-PABs are functioning at their optimal level, each C-PAB shall adopt bylaws using the Department-approved template. The bylaws govern C-PAB operating procedures, establish minimum requirements, and shall include: membership guidelines, term, duties and responsibilities of members, and voting guidelines.

Each Area may include other topics specific to the Area as long as they conform to the policies and procedures identified in this Section. The Area Commanding Officer has final authority on any changes to the bylaws.

Note: Area Commanding Officers shall continually assess their bylaws to ensure that they promote the participation of community members.

Membership. The size of a C-PAB and the selection of C-PAB members shall be determined solely by the respective Area CO. Each member's term will be one calendar year. Renewal of membership will be at the discretion of the Area CO and based on the individual's contribution, attendance and participation. There is no limit on the number of terms a member may serve.

Per Department guidelines, C-PAB members are classified as volunteers, therefore, Areas shall abide by the established guidelines and reporting criteria for volunteers (i.e., completion of the Community Volunteer Application and fingerprinting of volunteers).

Note: Community Outreach and Development Division (CODD) is the Department's Volunteer Coordinator.

Each Area shall have a C-PAB that is representative of its respective community. Factors such as gender, ethnicity, profession, community experience, and age should be considered to ensure that various perspectives and backgrounds are represented.

Members shall be at least 18 years of age. High school students under 18 years of age whose experience and maturity demonstrate that they would be able to represent an otherwise unrepresented facet of an Area may participate in C-PAB meetings, only with the approval of the Area CO. Juveniles shall not be permitted to participate in C-PAB voting matters or Goal-Oriented Committees.

Additionally, commanding officers should strive for C-PAB membership that is diverse in experience as well as viewpoints.

Note: To attain non-partisan membership, elected officials – including the paid or full-time volunteer staff of elected officials or political candidates – shall not be members of a C-PAB. However, elected officials and their staff are permitted and encouraged to participate in C-PAB meetings as a resource. Neither elected officials nor their staff may participate in any C-PAB voting matters or committees.

The C-PAB shall have two Co-Chairs and one Secretary. The Area Commanding Officer shall be one of the Co-Chairs and shall select the other Co-Chair as well as the Secretary from among the C-PAB members. Members shall serve at least one full term before becoming eligible for Co-Chair or Secretary. The terms for Co-Chair and Secretary are one calendar year, renewable at the sole discretion of the Area CO. There is no limit on the number of terms a member may serve as Co-Chair or Secretary, as long as the Area CO renews the member's term.

Dismissal of Members. Incidents may occur that warrant the dismissal of a member. When such incidents occur, the Area CO retains sole authority to remove a member. Due to confidentiality issues, an Area CO may not be able to provide the membership with an explanation for all removals; however, when it does not violate confidentiality, an explanation may be provided to reassure the C-PAB and the community that members are not being removed for arbitrary and/or capricious reasons.

In most cases, a member should not be removed because he or she does not agree with the position of the Department. Reasonable dissension should be allowed and is beneficial to the Department. This provides the Department with a different perspective relative to operations and can improve the effectiveness of the organization.

Note: Reasonable dissension will be determined by the Area CO, based upon the topic of dissension, manner in which the dissension is expressed, and its impact on the Area and Advisory Board's effectiveness.

Community-Police Advisory Board members can be dismissed for any of the following reasons:

Failure to fulfill the member requirements set forth by this section or Area bylaws;

Misconduct:

- Misrepresentation by a C-PAB member that he or she is a law enforcement officer or is employed by the Department;
- Misuse of the C-PAB identification card, including suggesting that he or she is a law enforcement officer or is employed by the Department;
- Participation in criminal activity;
- Violation of Area bylaws;
- Three unexcused absences from scheduled meetings or events during one calendar year; or,
- Any conduct deemed by the Area CO to be inappropriate for the C-PAB or the Department.

The Area CO shall make the final decision as to who will be removed.

Terms. Appointment as a Co-Chair or secretary will be limited to a renewable one-year term based on the Area CO's evaluation. An appointed Board member may be removed from his or her position according to the dismissal criteria to which each C-PAB member is subject.

Finance. There shall not be any financial requirements or membership fees associated with C-PAB membership, nor shall there be any compensation, either financial or otherwise, for membership in a C-PAB.

094. BOARDS OF INQUIRY AND AD HOC COMMITTEES.

094.05 TERMINOLOGY.

Convening Authority. The convening authority for Department boards of inquiry and ad hoc committees shall be the Chief of Police.

Precept. A Department precept is a document issued by the convening authority to activate a board of inquiry or ad hoc committee. The precept designates the chair, names the membership, sets forth the rules of assembling, clearly states the matter that is to be investigated, describes the scope of jurisdiction, and gives explicit instructions as to what the final report shall include, and any pertinent information relevant to the course of action to be taken.

Note: Boards of Inquiry and ad hoc committees are primarily fact finding bodies and, unless specifically directed by the convening authority in the precept to express opinions or make recommendations, shall confine themselves to findings of fact.

094.10 BOARDS OF INQUIRY. A Department board of inquiry shall consist of Department personnel assembled in compliance with a precept for the purpose of investigating a particular matter or alleged incident involving Department personnel or equipment. Some of the proceedings of a Department board of inquiry may, under certain conditions, become evidence before a Board of Rights or other administrative tribunal. When the nature of the board of inquiry is such that the findings may be prejudicial to a Department employee, the concerned employee shall be afforded the opportunity to appear before the board and present facts in his or her own behalf. In such cases, or when the employee appears at the request of the board of inquiry, the employee shall be informed of the nature of the inquiry prior to offering information in his or her own behalf. At the discretion of the chair, the employee may be permitted to present a reasonable number of witnesses in support of relevant issues raised by him or her before the board.

Exception: These requirements shall not apply if, in the opinion of the convening authority, the subject matter is such that revealing it would likely hinder the chances of a complete and thorough investigation. In such cases, the precept and the board's report shall be classified or reclassified as "Confidential." The chair shall recommend to the convening authority whenever, in his or her opinion, the inquiry should be classified as confidential. The inquiry shall be classified as confidential when the disclosure of the inquiry would be contrary to the best interest of the City.

When the proceedings reveal that an employee may be the subject of a personnel complaint involving a prosecutable offense, the employee shall be advised of his or her Miranda rights as a private person and allowed to exercise the same rights afforded a private person under similar circumstances.

094.15 AD HOC COMMITTEES. A Department ad hoc committee shall consist of Department personnel assembled in compliance with a precept for the purpose of gathering and studying information pertaining to policies, procedures, programs, or conditions that affect the Department.

094.20 MEMBERSHIP. Department boards of inquiry and ad hoc committees shall be comprised of members of appropriate class, rank, and seniority designated by the convening authority. The composition of such boards or committees shall be regulated by the circumstances to be investigated. The number of members to constitute such bodies shall be determined by the convening authority, who will consider the importance of the subject matter and the qualifications of Department employees to serve as members.

094.25 CHAIR - RESPONSIBILITY. The chair of a Department board of inquiry or ad hoc committee shall be responsible for providing administrative supervision on such matters within the jurisdiction of the board or committee, maintaining a record of the minutes of all meetings, and providing staff and clerical support.

Note: The precept will recognize the chair's capability to provide staff and clerical support from his regular assignment and will assign additional support when required.

The chair shall submit a final, and any other related, report to the convening authority via the reviewing officer when one has been designated. The final report shall contain the findings and, when appropriate, recommendations of the board or committee. Upon approval of the final report by the convening authority, the board or committee shall be deactivated.

Note: Dissenting members of a board or committee may prepare a minority report and submit it with the final report. The chair may comment on the minority report by separate correspondence to the convening authority.

094.30 REVIEWING OFFICER - RESPONSIBILITY. At his or her discretion, the convening authority may designate an officer senior in rank to the chair to act as Reviewing Officer on all matters within the jurisdiction of a particular Department board of inquiry or ad hoc committee. The reviewing officer shall provide administrative staff supervision and submit appropriate reports concerning the activities and progress of the board or committee to the convening authority.
