Twice in the past few weeks hundreds of bicyclists (in what was undoubtedly a planned and coordinated effort) have effectively taken over the streets in the Pacific Palisades. Once on Sunset and yesterday on PCH. Running red lights, riding on the wrong side of the street, interfering with traffic and pedestrians, doing “wheelies” and other dangerous stunts. And reportedly terrorizing citizens with aggressive behavior (including some instances of shoplifting). There are videos posted online.

What does the LAPD intend to do about this?
