Mayor Bass and LAPD Police Commission,

Why was Vice President Rasha Shields passed over for the position of LAPD Police Commission President? Based on observing her performance and her tenure on the Police Commission, she was clearly the obvious choice for the position of Police Commission president. Instead, in what seems like a backroom political deal we have been stuck with Sanchez-Gordon who clearly has no grasp of police issues and has a racist ethnic agenda which will alienate many residents of Los Angeles. Not promoting the best candidate for the job is a form of corruption. Sanchez Gordon in her short time as a Police Commissioner has demonstrated incompetence and laziness which is a bad example to set for the LAPD and the public.

With Deep Concern,
Voices for LAPD

Comrade Mayor bASS and LAPD Police Commissioners,

During the meeting last Tuesday , Sept 9th, with a new Police Commission president presiding, not a single mention was made of the 24th commemorative anniversary of the 9-11-2001 attack on America which resulted in the deaths of 2,977 people to include Police officers, Firefighters, and precious lives from every walk of life. Thousands more were injured and our nation sustained a deep wound which has still not healed and has caused ongoing deaths from the toxic aftermath of the heroes who went in to save, and rescue and search for lives and bodies.

Two days before the actual day and not a word or mention on the LAPD.ONLINE.ORG website of the anniversary. What does that say about the President of the Police Commission? It says that the Police Commission President has no sympathy or empathy for the victims of that horrible incident.

The public was not informed if there was going to be a citywide remembrance or not. Was there a commemorative ceremony for the victims of 9-11? Was it supposed to be a secret? Were the flags lowered at half mast in honor of the dead police officers, firefighters, and all the victims?

It is a sad testimony that those who lost their lives are forgotten no matter who they are. If this is a sign of how the new Police Commission president is going to lead , or not lead, Los Angeles will continue to descend in a dystopic city that has no heart for the victims of murder and crime!

In Prayerful remembrance for All victims.
