

DEI COMMITMENT

The Los Angeles Police Department's goal is to build and foster an organization committed to engaging the voices and respecting the humanity of all people. We recognize that equality, diversity, and human rights are an integral part of Departmental partnerships. The Department's commitment to DEI needs to be visible and must reflect the expectations of our communities. Every individual involved or connected with the Department must ensure they embody the intent of this mission through their words and actions.

