General Provisions

GENERAL PROVISIONS

001. POLICE COMMISSION-EXECUTIVE POWER.

The rule making power of the Police Commission is prescribed in the City Charter, Section 506 (a) and (b), which is quoted in part:

"Sec. 506 (a) and (b). The head of each department shall have the power... to supervise, control, regulate, and manage the department and to make and enforce all rules and regulations necessary for the exercise of the powers conferred upon the department ..."

004. DEPARTMENT MANUAL ESTABLISHED. The Manual of the Los Angeles Police Department is hereby established and shall hereafter be referred to as "the Department Manual." It is, and shall be, a composite of current policies, procedures, and rules pertaining to three or more Department Offices, as established under previously existing Department orders, manuals, and approved practices. It describes the Department's organizational structure and lists the responsibilities and functions thereof. All employees of the Department are to conform with the rules and provisions herein contained. All existing manuals, orders, and other regulations which are in conflict with the contents of the Department Manual are hereby revoked, except that the portions of existing manuals, orders, and other regulations which have not been included herein shall remain in effect where they do not conflict with the provisions of the Department Manual.

007. GENERAL PROVISIONS. The objectives, principles, policies, procedures, rules, and regulations set forth in the Department Manual and in the Department Emergency Operations Guide are guides to the actions of employees of the Department.

010. ORGANIZATION OF THE DEPARTMENT MANUAL.

The Department Manual is composed of six volumes which are hereby established and whose contents may be briefly described as follows:

Volume 0, "General Provisions." This Volume defines commonly used Department terms and the classification, issuance, and maintenance of Department Directives.

Volume I, "Policy." This Volume is composed of general statements concerning the objectives and principles set forth by the Board of Police Commissioners and the Chief of Police to guide Department activities.

Volume II, "Organization and Functions." This Volume outlines the organizational structure of the Department. It defines the responsibilities and functions of every office and of the bureaus, groups, areas, divisions, and sections.

Volume III, "Management Rules and Procedures." This Volume contains the elements of existing rules and procedures necessary to the administrative and managerial functions of the Department.

Volume IV, "Line Procedures." This Volume contains those detailed rules and procedures to aid Department employees in the execution of line duties performed in the direct furtherance of police objectives.

Volume V, "Clerical Operations." This Volume outlines the purpose, completion, and distribution of Department forms and is intended to be a guide in general reporting procedures.

020. NUMBERING SYSTEM USED IN THE DEPARTMENT MANUAL. A modified decimal system is used to number each volume, chapter, section, and subsection of the Department Manual in order to provide quick reference to all material, to afford an easy means of citing specific subjects, and to maintain the flexibility of format necessary to facilitate expansion and revision of its contents.

A typical reference under the decimal system used in the Department Manual would be "2/360.56." The number (2) preceding the diagonal line (solidus) indicates that the material is contained in the second volume of the Manual. The "360.56" conveys several facts:

- First, that the material is in Chapter 3 (2/360.56).
- Next, that it is in Section 60 of Chapter 3 (2/360.56).
- Finally, that it is located in the paragraph designated as .56 (2/360.56).
- This reference is read as "two, three-sixty, point fifty-six."
